lincolnberean GLOBAL OUTREACH

Global Outreach at Lincoln Berean aims to initiate, support, and empower the local church and its work among the unreached of the world. We do this through (1) raising up missionaries to establish new churches, (2) mobilizing the people of LBC to engage in the work God is doing around the world, and (3) developing national leaders throughout the world to advance God's work locally.

Currently, LBC has 34 supported missionaries working in the U.S., 24 missionaries working in 7 different countries, and over 100+ national leaders working throughout Asia. By God's grace, we hope to see these numbers increase in the coming years. Through Engagement Trips, missionary preparatory programs, and prayer, we trust God will continue to raise up workers to go to the nations.

Meet the Global Outreach Staff

Jason Harms, Pastor of Global Engagement since 2018. Previously, Jason worked in LBC youth ministries for almost 9 years. Most recently, Jason worked at Rentping. Jason and his wife, Kristen, have two girls, Eliza (3) and Riley (1). Jason enjoys playing guitar, riding dirt bikes, PJ Masks, reciprocating saws, coffee, the time between 8-10pm and sleeping through the night.

Scott Harris, Pastor of Global Sustainability since 2017. Before joining LBC's staff, Scott led Avant Ministries church-planting efforts from 2000-2015. Scott and his wife, Jolyn, are from Nebraska and were in the agriculture business until God called them to pastoral ministry. Scott and Jolyn have two grown daughters and two grandsons. He loves competitive shooting, hunting, woodworking, and developing leaders.

Ryan Harmon, Pastor of Global Outreach since 2015. Prior to this role, Ryan and his wife, Jenee, led LBC's church-planting team in Madrid, Spain. Ryan and Jenee have three young children, Sam (8), Lucia (4), and Jacob (2). Ryan loves to watch football, play golf, read, drink coffee and then, when he's done, he likes to drink more coffee.
